THE SLEEPING GIANT IS AWAKE

<< LIFE IS NOT A LONG QUIET RIVER >>

This famous quote aptly describes the history of Louis de Poortere. Founded in 1929 by its eponym, Louis' company had by the 1960s, become the backbone of the carpet weaving industry in Europe. The company has been consistently recognised by the high quality of its products and its commitment to serve and satisfy its customers at all cost. The next chapter in the story has many highs and a number of lows, which at times almost jeopardised the company's future. After 2000, the company was taken over by new shareholders with a fierce desire to establish once again a company worthy of the illustrious name Louis de Poortere. The journey has been long but even in times of global economic turmoil the original philosophy of Louis de Poortere led to a real rejuvenation of the company, recording numerous commercial successes, each founded on quality and service and always with a focus on innovation. Today we can say with pride that our reputation continues and in the words of one of our most loyal customers " the sleeping giant is awake".

PHILOSOPHY

The Louis De Poortere philosophy is based on a simple concept : we aim to be more than just a manufacturer of carpets.

In branching into home decorating, we have had to increase our creativity to meet your aesthetic requirements, and this has stimulated us to transform the generic into magic.

Because people are increasingly seeking beauty, elegance, value and comfort for their homes, our designers and technicians have created entire collections that are modern and accessible, and designed to bring you the utmost pleasure. Because your demands are becoming increasingly specific and your tastes more assured, we have developed bold concepts that are simple and attractive and will enable you to easily reach ultimate sophistication in your floorcovering. At Louis De Poortere you will find rugs, carpets, stair runners and even border rugs, which you can freely mix and match to make your decorating "home sweet home" experience a pleasure. Our passion is to offer you this pleasure.

MAD MEN COLLECTION

GRIFF

Madison Avenue runs between Park Avenue and Fifth Avenue in Manhattan. Since the Twenties, it has been the centre of the American advertising industry. The Madison Men were the golden boys of the Sixties, who "dreamed up" the images of the iconic brands of the USA. Inspired by this theme, De Poortere has created a new collection of "Vintage Sixties" rugs.

A mix of straight and broken lines, of dull and shining yarns, of smooth and ragged pencil strokes.

GRIFF

Here we find an indication of pain and disorder, of the rifts and big changes like Women's Lib, Vietnam, The Black Panthers, and May 68 but also of the creative energy of action painting in the late sixties.

JACOB'S LADDER

Stands for the uneasy but exhilarating climb on the social ladder. It is the way the advertising industry pictures society. More, better, higher, richer... But the climb can be tricky even if the rungs are glittering.

This design shows you the straight lines of the buildings and the avenues in the late fifties and the early sixties. Cool colours of the day and rich colours of the night are mixed with the shining windows of the busy offices.

GENERATION

Over a century of skill and craftsmanship is woven into every rug we produce. Woven on jacquard Wilton looms with cotton chenille yarns, each beautiful rug has multiple layers of texture, distressed areas and intricate stitching detail to give a true 'vintage' look.

The next generation of the Fading World collection has links with the disruptive events of the Sixties, when the upcoming generation upset the establishment. Hence the bold streaks and the "aggression of time" on the colours and the classical design.

Agra was the residence of the Moghul sultans. Their palaces were strewn with colourful carpets showing typical flower patterns. These colours and patterns have been dug up from the De Poortere archives and revisited in the distressed look of our Fading World collection.
